Note	Added by
Between 1st August 2001 and 31st July, the Universities of Glasgow and Strathclyde operated a joint department. All students starting the above degree between these dates are eligible for a degree certificate with both university crests. On 1st August 2009, the joint venture separated and now this degree is run solely by the University of Strathclyde. All students commencing this degree post 1st August 2009 will now receive a degree certificate issued by the University of Strathclyde. It is envisaged that the last cohort of MEng graduates eligible for a certificate with both crests will graduate in summer 2014.	Institute of Marine Engineering, Science and Technology
